

An SMP Production

The Players Present

3 One Act Plays

Night's Candles

By Hazel Wyld

'A Heart Warming Tale'

The Woman Who Cooked Her Husband

By Debbie Isitt

'A Black Comedy'

Impasse

By Galton & Simpson

'A Raucous Comedy'

24th July 2010 7.30pm

At Fleecefield Primary School
Brettenham Rd, London, N18 2ET

Tickets £6

Call 0844 414 2731 or email
tickets@smptheatre.co.uk

www.smptheatre.co.uk

Night's Candles

By Hazel Wyld

'A Heart Warming Tale'

Fizz and Frank have been divorced for many years. To their surprise they find themselves together in a rambling garden. As they ponder how they got there, things appear that are very familiar! A distinguished gentleman, Peter, appears to answer their questions and forces Fizz to make the ultimate choice....

The Woman Who Cooked Her Husband

By Debbie Isitt

'A Black Comedy'

A classic mid-life crisis, Ken has been married 20 years when he finds himself in the arms of another woman, Laura. At first all is well, but gradually things deteriorate and to make matters worse Laura can't cook. As time passes, Ken mourns the loss of the well fed life he once knew. When his ex wife invites them to dinner, he readily accepts, unaware of what delicacies she plans to serve....

Impasse

By Galton & Simpson

'A Raucous Comedy'

When two worlds collide there's no turning back! A Rolls Royce and an old banger meet in country lane, with both drivers refusing to back up you've got an impasse that's enough to drive you round the bend. Tempers flare and fists fly in a crisis the AA, the RAC and the long arm of the law will struggle to fix!

The Players Present

24th July 2010 7.30pm

At Fleecefield Primary School
Brettenham Rd, London, N18 2ET
Tickets £6

Call 0844 414 2731 or email tickets@smptheatre.co.uk

For more information visit www.smptheatre.co.uk